COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, ATHENS COUNTY, OHIO

Plaintiffs,

Cause No. 20483

ENTRY VACATING RIVERVIEW
DRIVE

vs

Aug. 31, 1953

The City of Athens, Ohio,
Foster B. Bean, Freda M.
Bean, Janice Chapman, Henry
Leach and Madge Leach
Defendants

This day this cause having been duly assigned for hearing came on to be heard upon the petition of the plaintiff, the answer of the City of Athens, Ohio, consenting to the prayer of the petition, all other defendants having given their consent to vacating Riverview Drive as prayed for in the petition and join in the prayer for such vacation, and the evidence.

The Court finds that all defendants were duly and legally served with process or voluntarily entered their appearance and are properly before the Court, and that notice by publication has been given in The Athens Messenger, a newspaper of general circulation in Athens County in accordance with the provision of Section 3731 of the General Code.

The Court further finds that the street known as Riverview Drive in Terrace Heights Sub-division in the City of Athens, Ohio, has been dedicated to public use but never opened; that said street is no longer of public use to the lot owners abutting thereon, nor to the public, nor to the City of Athens, Ohio, and the vacation of said street will conduce to the general interest of said municipality enough to be vacated.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the said Riverview Drive be and the same is hereby vacated and it is further ordered and decreed that 20 feet of said premises included in the said street so vacated adjacent to each lot abutting on said street so vacated, revert to the owner or owners of such abutting lot as a matter of law, and it is ordered that the plaintiff pay the cost of this proceeding for which judgment is rendered.
